New building at the bays of the Ligurian Riviera! A unique location with sea views
The new Baia del Sole building occupies a truly unique place on one of the most beautiful bays of the Ligurian Riviera, where the railway is lost in the underground tunnel, allowing you to fully enjoy the view of this paradise, located at the sea itself. An oasis of peace and tranquility, where silence reigns. All finishing work is planned to be carried out using materials of the "luxury" class, which can be chosen by future owners. In addition, all apartments are designed and built in such a way as to
